

Herndon, VA, September 29, 2006 – Lippert/Heilshorn & Associates' client RCN Corporation (NASDAQ: RCNI) received two awards at the Public Relations Society of America National Capital Chapter's 38th annual Thoth Awards Dinner – a Thoth Award in the financial/investor relations program category, and an Award of Excellence in the Integrated Communications category. In addition to Richard Ramlall, Senior VP for Strategic & Regulatory Affairs, and his team, the company recognized LHA and Communicreate, an Alexandria, Va.-based international PR consultancy, for providing outside, experienced, senior expert counsel and services. From 144 entries in 35 categories, 36 Thoth Awards and 25 Certificates of Excellence were presented. The Thoth Awards are named for the Egyptian god of information and communication. PRSA-NCC is the largest Public Relations Society of America chapter in the country with nearly 1,300 members.