“MARKET TALK: Acacia’s Adaptix Deal Quickly Proves Merit”

By Ben Dummett

If investors had any doubts about the merits of Acacia's (ACTG) $160M deal to acquire Adaptix, they likely don't anymore. Since announcing the deal Friday, Adaptix has secured patent-licensing pacts with Microsoft (MFST) and Samsung (SSNHY) for its 4G technology. Further, ACTG expects to make similar-type acquisitions in future. After rising 7% Friday on the news, ACTG shares are up another 4.9% today at $42, putting the week's gains at 6.3%.
